The main navigation bar includes links: Home, Service And Parts Information, Diagnosis World, Workshop & Tools, Info-Center, and Links. The "Service And Parts Information" link is highlighted.

The main content area is titled "Service & Parts net - OEM Workshop Information for Mercedes-Benz and smart". Below the title is a large image of a silver Mercedes-Benz car.

Two callouts are present:

- A green box with the text "Välj 'service and parts information'" points to the "Service And Parts Information" link in the navigation bar.
- A green box with the text "Ändra språk till engelska(tyska förvalt)" points to the "Language" link in the top right corner.

The right-hand menu contains several sections:

- Login to the systems: Includes fields for Username and Password, a Login button, and a link for "Forgotten your password?".
- Registration: Includes links for "Register WIS ASRA TIPS" and "Register Parts Information".
- Quick Start: Includes links for "Access to 'Special Tools'", "Access XENTRY Shop", "Find a Retailer", and "National information".
- Login to the systems: Includes links for "DSB, XENTRY TIPS, WebParts, Parts Information" and a Login button.
- Important system messages: Includes a link for "Please regularly read the system messages on using our products".
- Step by step to the desired system: Includes a link for "Here we will show you how to acquire or extend the required access authorizations".

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with the text: "© 2005-2020 Mercedes-Benz AG. All rights reserved. | Supplier | Data Protection | Legal Notes".

The online service booklet

An easier and more secure way to document service and maintenance work performed on your vehicle - this is ensured by the online system for Mercedes-Benz vehicle owners. The Mercedes-Benz AG / Daimler Truck AG digital service report contains a record of all performed service work and thus replaces the previously used conventional maintenance documentation.

The Digital Service Booklet is now available in 171 markets for Mercedes-Benz cars including the smart model series (BM 453), vans and - since October 2016 - for trucks too. With this, the search for service booklets for the Actros, Antos, Arocs, Atego and Econic truck models that can no longer be found in the vehicle is a thing of the past, as the service data can now be retrieved at any given time online.

Step-by-step for the desired access authorization

Information on the Mercedes-Benz customer number
It is not possible to register in the DSB system without a Mercedes-Benz customer number! The customer number is used to identify commercial customers.

If you do not have a customer number, please begin with step 1.

If you already have a customer number (e.g. due to replacement parts orders in the past), you can begin with step 3.

Proceed as follows to purchase access authorization for the Digital Service Booklet (DSB):

Step 1:	Before registering, please go to a Mercedes-Benz dealership/workshop operation of your choice. Note: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• You can easily obtain a Mercedes-Benz customer number from any authorized Mercedes-Benz dealership/workshop operation nearby.• To quickly and easily find the nearest Mercedes-Benz dealership/workshop operation, click on "Find a Retailer" in the "Quick Start" section on the right.• Please do not confuse your Mercedes-Benz customer number with the user name for the Service & Parts net portal (WIS/ASRA), the XENTRY Shop, Parts Information, Xentry TIPS, or Mercedes-Benz WebParts.
Step 2:	The Mercedes-Benz dealer/workshop operation creates a Mercedes-Benz customer number for you and delivers it to you.
Step 3:	Once you have received your Mercedes-Benz customer number, go to the Service & Parts net page. Click on "Service and Parts Information", then "Digital Service Booklet (DSB)" and then on "DSB Registration" in the box on the right called "Links Digital Service Booklet (DSB)".
Step 4:	On the following page, read the general terms and conditions for the Digital Service Booklet (DSB).
Step 5:	You must then confirm that you agree with the general terms and conditions. Furthermore, you must also confirm that you are a commercial customer and repair and maintain professionally Mercedes-Benz passenger cars. In a third step, confirm that you are aware of the system requirements. After placing a check in the box, click on "Proceed".
Step 6:	You will be asked to enter your personal data on the following registration form. Compulsory fields are identified with *.
Step 7:	After your personal data has been entered, you will be assigned to a company belonging to the authorized group of users. The activation may take up to 48 hours.
Step 8:	After you have completed the registration process, you will be sent to you via e-mail. Your registration process at any point.
Step 9:	Using your user name and password, you can now log in at the "Access DSB" section (the link is always on the right side in Service & Parts net) and carry out service documentation with the DSB system.

Step 1: Read the general terms and conditions (T&Cs) that apply to the DSB

§1 Scope of the General Terms and Conditions

(1) These General Terms and Conditions regulate the terms of usage between Users and Mercedes-Benz AG / Daimler Truck AG, 70546 Stuttgart (hereafter referred to as "Mercedes-Benz AG / Daimler Truck AG") in relation to the Digital Service Booklet system (hereafter "DSB") provided by Mercedes-Benz AG / Daimler Truck AG online.

(2) Mercedes-Benz AG / Daimler Truck AG reserves the right to change, amend or replace the General Terms and Conditions at any time. The User will be informed of all changes or amendments to the General Terms and Conditions. They will automatically become a binding part of the agreement if the User does not object within the period of one month after publication.

§2 Creation of the contract, content, and conclusion of the contract

(1) When the User places an application for authorization through Mercedes-Benz AG / Daimler Truck AG, a contract between Mercedes-Benz AG / Daimler Truck AG and the User for gratuitous access to DSB is established according to these General Terms and Conditions.

(2) The subject of the contract is the access authorization to DSB for the electronic maintenance documentation of Mercedes-Benz vehicles. The DSB has been created with diligence and attention to the latest technical standards. Nevertheless, errors or intermittent failures cannot be fully excluded. The DSB is provided to Users in the same way and for the same period that it is used by Mercedes-Benz AG / Daimler Truck AG. The system may also change during the period of the access authorization.

(3) Further information about the DSB system may be found on the website www.service-and-parts.net.

(4) A contract between the User and Mercedes-Benz AG / Daimler Truck AG will only be concluded if the present Terms and Conditions are accepted by the User. The User must indicate his/her agreement to these Terms by
